

Ebooks: For or against? Worksheets*Task 1: Read*Blog on. The 'for or against' blog.*Electronic books or paper books?

Are electronic books better than traditional paper books? Ebooks are very popular these days but many readers prefer paper books.

Some people think that electronic books are great. You can store thousands of books on an ebook, whereas paper books take up lots of space at home. You don't need to go to a bookshop because you can buy and receive books online instantly.

On the other hand, printed books are still very popular. Some people prefer to hold a 'real' book and like to touch paper pages. You can lend a favourite book to a friend but you can't borrow your friend's ereader for a couple of weeks. Also, electronic books are very expensive.

To sum up, I think that electronic books are a really useful invention. Many people use them but they won't replace paper books in the future. What do you think?

Ebooks are rubbish! They are really expensive and you can't read them in the bath.

I use my ereader when I go on holiday. I can take lots of books and there's still a lot of room left in my suitcase for clothes and other stuff. Great!

Ebooks are the future. In twenty years we won't be reading paper books.

Ebooks are just for rich people who need to have the latest gadget to show to their friends. I'm sticking with paperbacks.

I love my ebook. It's very light, you can change the size of the words, you can make notes on the pages, you can buy a book with a couple of clicks AND you can download books for free. What's not to like?
Tamsin, Netherlands.

I work in a bookshop. What happens to people like me if everyone stops buying books?
