

Every day I go to bed at ten o'clock in the morning.

I drive a taxi and I work at night.

I want a big house and I need a lot of money.

I have twenty cats.

I feel very lonely.

I don't have time to meet my friends.

Every day I go to bed at ten o'clock in the morning,

because I drive a taxi and I work at night,

because I want a big house and I need a lot of money,

because I have twenty cats,

because I feel very lonely,

because I don't have time to meet my friends,

because every day I go to bed at ten o'clock in the morning.
