

Resource D

I live in a small flat at the moment, on the thirteenth floor of a tower block. The lift is often broken and it is very difficult to climb so many stairs. I live with my husband and four children but we only have two bedrooms so it's very crowded. I'd like to move to a four-bedroom house with a large garden so my children can play outside.